Louie,

I have checked with a few people within EC and they have indicated that it is "OK" for you to place the name and contact number of the EA coordinator. Please place my contact information (rather than Mark's) on the website and perhaps you could indicate something on the lines of this "I serve as a window into Environment Canada and while other experts are not named, people can have access to them through our internal EA coordination approach." You may even be able to generalize this statement and use it as disclaimer for other organizations as well, as I believe it applies to more than just EC.

Thanks,
Paula

Subject: Updated Experts Table

Please find attached an Excel and PDF file of the De Beers Terms of Reference with government expert reviewers identified for each line number. With your permission I will put the name and contact email and phone number of the EA coordinator for each government department/agency on our web site with the table. Please let me know as soon as possible if your department/agency has any policy or regulations prohibiting the posting of the information.

Sincerely,
