Re: DeBeers Snap Lake Public Hearing – (1) CVs for experts; and (2) translators

Dear Ms Fratton:

Further to your email of Good Friday April 18th that set out a summary calendar of remaining major events/submissions for the DeBeers Environmental Review. In that calendar there is a deadline stating that CVs for experts must be submitted by 12 noon April 22nd (today). We are not able to meet this deadline. To be honest, I didn't know about it until I returned to my office this morning following the Easter long weekend and found that we had approximately 2 hours to meet the noon deadline. It seems that I have missed some other transmission of this particular deadline.

I have been attempting to track down CVs from the experts we relied on, however they are scattered throughout the continent and many are working in the field and will not be near computers until later today. We will do our best to get these CVs to you as soon as possible, hopefully tomorrow.

My clients, the Dogrib Treaty 11 Council have asked that I recommend the following translators to the MVEIRB – James Rabesca and Margaret Mackenzie. The Chiefs believe that these translators work the best with Dogrib Elders and have the experience to best explain many of the technical terms that will be used during the hearing.

Please feel free to contact me should you have any further questions.

Yours truly,

Jean Teillet
