

Model rendering of the fully developed Snap Lake site. This is a representation of the proposed facility depicting the north pile to the correct scale, taken from the boundary of the local study area (approximately) and viewed from 55m above ground level.