Re: EA2223-01 Imperial Oil's, Normal Wells Waste Management Facility Government of the Northwest Territories responsibilities and roles

The Mackenzie Valley Environmental Impact Review Board (Review Board) is conducting an environmental assessment of Imperial Oil's Normal Wells Waste Management Facility. The Canada Energy Regulator is also currently conducting a regulatory review of the Norman Wells Waste Management Facility.

To provide clarity to the Review Board, regulatory authorities, Indigenous Governments and organizations, and other parties to this environmental assessment, please provide the following:

1. roles and responsibilities of the federal government in the Review Board's environmental assessment of this project (EA2223-01<sup>1</sup>)
2. roles and responsibilities of Federal Government in the regulatory review of the Canada Energy Regulator's Norman Wells Waste Management Facility<sup>2</sup>
3. key contacts with your organization
